

The Springbank Secondary College Governing Council is keen to promote a sense of pride and positive image in the local community. As such the Governing Council is in the process of approving a new uniform that is appropriate for a school environment. This will be a year of transitioning to the new uniform.

- The Governing Council has established a uniform policy that is documented in the school diary.
- Uniform can be purchased from Devon Clothing which is located at 84 Daws Road Edwardstown.
 - Opening times are Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm, Saturday 9am to 12pm.
- The current SSC uniform is on display in the foyer of the Administration Office.

The uniform policy has been determined by the Governing Council in consultation with the parents/carers, staff and students of the school.
